INSTRUMENT IV: THE STATE IDENTITY, REGALIA & HERITAGE ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This constitutional instrument formally establishes and protects the official styling of the State, the Monarch, and the Public Seal of Danuvius. It legally codifies the realm's deep historical legacy, linking the territory to its Scordisci Celtic roots (via the Batina necropolis) and its historical European and Scottish mercenary connections. Furthermore, this Act registers the Sovereign March Tartan and formalises the Margravial Kilt as official state dress for ceremonial and state occasions.

Instrument IV: The State Identity, Regalia & Heritage Act

(4 Albr. I)

AN ACT to establish and protect the official styling of the State and Sovereign, codify the realm's ancient heritage, Celtic roots, and mercenary legacy, and officially register the Sovereign March Tartan and ceremonial state dress.

BE IT ENACTED by Our Sovereign Hand, in this first year of Our Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND SUPREMACY

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The State Identity, Regalia & Heritage Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 4 Albrecht I (the fourth statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Constitutional Supremacy

(1) This Act forms an integral part of the foundational constitutional law of the Realm, operating in harmony with Instruments I, II, and III

(2) The heritage, symbols, and official styling defined herein are protected under law and may not be altered or commercialised without express royal warrant.

Margravial Chancery of Danuvius

PART III: HISTORICAL LEGACY AND CULTURAL HERITAGE

5. Codification of Scordisci Celtic and Danubian Heritage
(1) The Realm formally recognises and adopts its historical continuity from the ancient Scordisci Celtic tribes of the Danubian basin, acknowledging the cultural lineage connected to the archaeological heritage of the Batina necropolis and the Danubian frontier.

(2) This ancient heritage forms a foundational pillar of the cultural identity, spirit, and historical legitimacy of Danuvius.

6. Recognition of European and Scottish Mercenary Legacy
(1) The Realm honours and incorporates into its institutional memory the historical legacy of European and Scottish martial service within the Holy Roman Empire and Danubian borderlands.

(2) This tradition of fidelity, frontier defence, and martial leadership is preserved as part of the ceremonial ethos of the Margraviate.

Margravial Chancery of Danuvius

PART IV: THE SOVEREIGN MARCH TARTAN AND OFFICIAL DRESS

7. Registration of the Sovereign March Tartan
(1) There is hereby officially registered and established the Sovereign March Tartan, incorporating the crimson red, midnight blue, gold, and silver tinctures corresponding to the state colours and heraldry of Danuvius

(2) The pattern, thread count, and colour composition of the Sovereign March Tartan are placed under the direct protection of the Crown and the Margravial Chancery.

8. Establishment of Official State Dress
(1) The Margravial Kilt, fashioned from the Sovereign March Tartan alongside traditional accoutrements, is hereby recognised and formalised as authorised official state dress for ceremonial occasions, court functions, and representatives of the Margraviate.

(2) The wearing of the Margravial Kilt and associated regalia in official state capacities shall signify adherence to the mixed Celtic, European, and frontier traditions of the Realm.

PART V: COMMENCEMENT

9. Commencement

This Act shall take effect immediately upon Royal Assent and signature by the Sovereign in this inaugural year of Our Reign.

Given under Our hand and the Great Seal of the Margraviate of Danuvius, this 4th day of May, 2026, being the first year of Our Reign.
