INSTRUMENT XVIII: THE EMERGENCY POWERS & STATE CONTINGENCY ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This statutory instrument formally establishes the constitutional mechanisms for emergency management, state contingencies, public safety declarations, and continuity of government within the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius. Operating as Part XVIII of the foundational legal framework, this Act regulates the invocation, exercise, and oversight of emergency powers by the Sovereign and the High Council during severe crises, natural disasters, or threats to state security.

Instrument XVIII: The Emergency Powers & State Contingency Act

(18 Albr. I)

AN ACT to provide for the proclamation of states of emergency, to authorise extraordinary measures for public safety and national defense, to safeguard the continuity of state institutions, and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by Our Sovereign Hand, in this first year of Our Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: PRELIMINARY AND DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY

1. Short Title and Citation
(1) This instrument may be cited as The Emergency Powers & State Contingency Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 18 Albrecht I (the eighteenth statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Proclamation of a State of Emergency
(1) If at any time it appears to the Sovereign Margrave that circumstances have arisen, or are imminent, which threaten the security, public order, economic stability, or territorial integrity of Danuvius, the Sovereign may, by Royal Proclamation, declare a State of Emergency.

(2) A Royal Proclamation issued under subsection (1) shall specify the nature of the emergency, the geographic or digital domains affected, and the initial duration of the emergency state, not exceeding ninety days without renewal.

PART II: EMERGENCY MEASURES AND STATE CONTINGENCY

3. Extraordinary Executive Powers
(1) During a declared State of Emergency, the High Council, acting under the direction of the High Chancellor and subject to Royal Prerogative, may issue Emergency Regulations necessary to:

(a) Protect public health, safety, and infrastructure;

(b) Secure critical communications, digital networks, and financial systems;

(c) Mobilise the Danubian Civil Defence Corps and civilian peace officers; and

(d) Reallocate public funds from the Consolidated Revenue Fund for immediate relief operations.

(2) All Emergency Regulations promulgated under this section shall be published promptly in the Acta Margravialis and registered with the Margravial Chancery.

4. Continuity of Government and Sovereign Succession
(1) In the event of a catastrophic disruption, hostile action, or cyber emergency threatening state infrastructure, emergency administrative authority shall automatically devolve to the Emergency Executive Committee of the High Council.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting, suspending, or altering the absolute rights of royal succession or the supreme prerogative of the Sovereign Margrave as established under Instrument III.

Margravial Chancery of Danuvius

PART III: LIMITATIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTION

5. Constitutional Safeguards and Review
(1) Emergency Regulations issued under this Act must remain proportionate to the severity of the crisis and shall automatically expire upon the revocation or termination of the State of Emergency.

(2) The High Court of the Realm retains judicial jurisdiction to review the lawfulness of emergency measures, ensuring compliance with fundamental legal principles and human rights recognised under Danubian law.

6. Revocation of Proclamation
(1) The Sovereign Margrave may at any time, by Royal Proclamation, declare a State of Emergency to be terminated when normal constitutional order and civil safety have been fully restored.
