Classification: Constitutional Law / Governance Charter |

Doc ID: SMED-FA-2026-002

INSTRUMENT II: THE CONSTITUTIONAL CHARTER OF THE REALM, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This constitutional instrument establishes the primary governance and operational framework of the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius under the hereditary rule of the House of Ister. Operating as Part II of the core constitutional framework, this Act defines the executive powers and prerogatives of the Sovereign, establishes the composition and legislative functions of the High Commission, codifies fundamental civil liberties, and outlines provisions for state continuity.

Instrument II: The Constitutional Charter of the Realm

(2 Albr. I)

AN ACT to provide for the constitution of the Realm, to define the executive and legislative powers of the Crown and the High Commission, to guarantee fundamental civil liberties, and to establish the organs of governance.

BE IT ENACTED by Your Serene Highness, in this first year of Your Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND SUPREMACY

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The Constitutional Charter of the Realm, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 2 Albrecht I (the second statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Supremacy of the Constitution

(1) This Charter, alongside Instrument I (The Organic Act of Establishment) and Instrument III (The Margravial Succession Act), forms the supreme constitutional law of the Realm.

(2) Any law, decree, regulation, or administrative act inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter shall, to the extent of such inconsistency, be null, void, and of no legal effect.

PART II: THE SOVEREIGN AND EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY

3. The Executive Power
(1) The executive power of the Realm is vested in the Sovereign, His Serene Highness Margrave Albrecht I, and shall be exercised in accordance with this Charter and the laws of Danuvius.

(2) The Sovereign exercises supreme command over all civil administration, state registries, and official representation of the Realm in international affairs.

4. Royal Assent and Promulgation
(1) No bill passed by the High Commission shall become law without the formal Royal Assent of the Sovereign, signified by Our signature and the application of the Great Seal of the Margraviate

(2) The Sovereign possesses the prerogative of mercy, the power to grant honours and awards as the sole Fount of Honour, and the authority to issue executive ordinances in times of urgent public necessity.

PART III: THE HIGH COMMISSION

5. Establishment and Composition of the High Commission
(1) There is hereby established the legislative and advisory assembly of the Realm, styled as The High Commission (alternatively referred to as the Executive Council), comprising a High Commissioner, Commissioners, and Consultative Members

(2) The High Commission shall be responsible for debating, drafting, and passing statutory acts, civil codes, and budgetary allocations for the governance of the Realm.

6. Ranks and Voting Privileges
The membership of the High Commission shall be structured into the following distinct official ranks:

(a) High Commissioner: Senior executive delegate appointed by the Sovereign or elected to preside and chair council meetings, holding swing-vote powers in case of a split vote.

(b) Commissioners: Senior executive delegates appointed by the Sovereign or elected to lead key state portfolios, holding full voting powers and ministerial direction.

(c) Consultative Members:

(i) Delegated representatives, technical experts, or community delegates who hold the right to speak, introduce proposals, and participate fully in parliamentary debate within the High Commission, but do not hold voting power on final statutory enactments.

(ii) Every officially registered political party or civic association within the Realm shall be entitled to accredit one party delegate as a Consultative Member to ensure popular civic representation in all council debates.

6. Legislative Procedure and Quorum
(1) A quorum of the High Commission for the passage of binding statutes shall consist of a majority of voting High Commissioners and Commissioners currently holding office.

(2) Every bill approved by the High Commission shall be presented to the Sovereign for Royal Assent within fourteen days of its passage.

The Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius

PART IV: FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND LIBERTIES

7. Protection of Fundamental Freedoms
The Realm recognises and protects the inherent dignity and fundamental liberties of all citizens and residents within its jurisdiction, including:

(a) Freedom of Conscience and Expression: The right to hold personal beliefs and express opinions peaceably, provided they do not infringe upon the public peace or the sovereignty of the Realm.

(b) Security of Person and Property: Protection against arbitrary deprivation of property or unlawful interference, subject to the legitimate regulatory powers of the Margraviate.

(c) Due Process of Law: The right to a fair, transparent, and impartial hearing before any administrative penalty or legal dispute is adjudicated under the laws of Danuvius.
