THE CROWN OFFICE OF THE SOVEREIGN MARGRAVIATE OF DANUVIUS

Promulgated: May 2026 |

Administrative Authority: The Margravial Chancery & High Council

Classification: Constitutional Framework / Dynastic Law |

Doc ID: SMED-FA-2026-003

INSTRUMENT III: THE MARGRAVIIAL SUCCESSION ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This constitutional instrument establishes the definitive rules of hereditary inheritance for the Margravial Seat of Danuvius under the House of Ister. Operating as Part III of the core constitutional framework, this Act codifies absolute primogeniture, outlines formal procedures for confirming the Heir Apparent, establishes transparent protocols for regency during minority or infirmity, and governs the legal framework for voluntary abdication.

Instrument III: The Margravial Succession Act

(3 Albr. I)

AN ACT to provide for the hereditary succession to the Margravial Seat of Danuvius, to establish the principle of absolute primogeniture within the House of Ister, to provide for regency and the confirmation of the Heir Apparent, and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by Your Serene Highness, in this first year of Your Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND SUPREMACY

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The Margravial Succession Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 3 Albrecht I (the third statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Constitutional Supremacy

(1) This Act forms an integral part of the foundational constitutional law of the Realm, operating in harmony with Instrument I (The Organic Act of Establishment) and Instrument II (The Constitutional Charter of the Realm).

(2) The rules of succession defined herein are immutable save through formal constitutional amendment enacted with the express concurrence of the Crown.

PART II: RULES OF HEREDITARY INHERITANCE

3. Absolute Primogeniture and Descent of the Crown
(1) The right to the Margravial Throne of Danuvius shall pass by hereditary descent through the legitimate bloodline of the House of Ister.

(2) Succession to the Crown shall be governed strictly by the rule of Absolute Primogeniture, whereby the first-born child of the Sovereign succeeds to the Throne regardless of biological sex.

(3) Lineal descendants of an eligible heir who predeceases the Sovereign shall inherit by right of representation in the same order of seniority

4. Disqualification and Exclusion from Succession
(1) An individual shall be permanently excluded from the line of succession if they renounce their dynastic rights through a formal, witnessed instrument presented to the High Commission.

(2) No person who fails to uphold the sovereignty, laws, or constitutional security of the Realm may ascend to the Crown.

PART III: ACCESSION, REGNAL NAMING, AND THE HEIR APPARENT

5. Accession and Mandatory Royal Regnal Name
(1) Immediately upon the demise, abdication, or demise of authority of the reigning Sovereign, the next eligible heir in accordance with absolute primogeniture shall instantly ascend to the Margravial Throne of Danuvius.

(2) Upon accession to the Throne, the incoming Margrave must formally choose and proclaim a new royal regnal name, under which all royal edicts, commissions, and sovereign acts of their reign shall be promulgated.

(3) The newly chosen royal regnal name shall be officially registered in the High Commission and published in the Official State Gazette within seven days of accession.

6. Designation and Formal Confirmation of the Heir Apparent
(1) The eldest child in the direct line of succession shall hold the historic styling and title of Heir Apparent (or Prince/Princess of the March)

(2) Upon attaining majority at the age of eighteen years, the Heir Apparent shall formally take an oath of allegiance to the Constitution and the Realm before the High Commission, confirming

PART IV: REGENCY AND ABDICATION

7. Provision for Regency
(1) If the Sovereign ascends to the Throne while a minor (under the age of eighteen years), or is incapacitated by prolonged physical or mental infirmity verified by the High Commission and the senior medical council of the realm, the executive powers of the Crown shall be exercised by a Regent.

(2) The Regency shall be held by the closest adult relative in the line of succession, or, failing such a person, by an executive Regent appointed under provisions approved by the High Commission.

(3) The Regent shall govern in the name of the Sovereign but shall possess no authority to alter the succession or enact constitutional amendments without subsequent royal ratification

8. Voluntary Abdication
(1) A reigning Sovereign may voluntarily abdicate the Throne by executing a formal Instrument of Abdication under their hand and the Great Seal

(2) Abdication becomes legally effective upon registration with the High Commission and immediately transfers the Crown to the next eligible Heir Apparent in accordance with absolute primogeniture
