THE CROWN OFFICE OF THE SOVEREIGN MARGRAVIATE OF DANUVIUS

Promulgated: May 2026 |

Administrative Authority: The Margravial Chancery & High Council

Classification: Citizenship & Immigration Law |

Doc ID: SMED-FA-2026-010

INSTRUMENT X: THE CITIZENSHIP, NATURALISATION & IMMIGRATION ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This statutory instrument formally establishes the laws governing citizenship, naturalisation, subjecthood, e-residency, and immigration within the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius. Operating as Part X of the foundational legal framework, this Act defines the criteria for acquiring Danubian nationality, allegiance to the Crown, Royal Prerogative grants, Citizenship through Service, and the rights and duties appertaining to subjects of the Realm.

Instrument VIII: The National Honours, Chivalric Orders & Precedence Act

(10 Albr. I)

AN ACT to regulate citizenship, naturalisation, e-residency, and immigration within the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius, to define the royal prerogative regarding subjecthood, to establish citizenship through public service, and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by Our Sovereign Hand, in this first year of Our Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: PRELIMINARY AND SUBJECTHOOD

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The Citizenship, Naturalisation & Immigration Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 10 Albrecht I (the tenth statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Status of Subjecthood and Allegiance

1) Every person who is a founder, native-born subject, or duly naturalised citizen of Danuvius owes permanent allegiance to the Sovereign Margrave and the Crown.

(2) Subjects of the Realm shall enjoy the full protection of Danubian law and shall be entitled to carry official documentation and passports issued under the authority of the Margravial Chancery.

PART II: ACQUISITION OF CITIZENSHIP & SPECIAL PATHWAYS

3. Citizenship by Birth and Descent
(1) Any person born to a Danubian citizen, or born within the sovereign enclaves of the Realm under conditions prescribed by the Chancery, shall be recognised as a natural-born subject of Danuvius.

(2) Descent through either parent shall be deemed sufficient to transmit citizenship, subject to registration with the civil authorities of the Realm.

4. Naturalisation and Standard Enrolment
(1) The High Chancellor may grant a Certificate of Naturalisation to any foreign national who demonstrates good character, financial probity, and an undertaking to respect the laws and traditions of the Realm.

(2) Every naturalised subject shall take an oath of allegiance to Margrave Albrecht I, his heirs, and successors prior to the issuance of letters of citizenship.

5. Royal Prerogative and E-Residency Grants
(1) The Sovereign Margrave retains the absolute royal prerogative to grant full citizenship directly by Royal Warrant to any E-Resident of the Realm who maintains good standing and demonstrates exemplary devotion to Danuvius.

(2) A grant conferred under subsection (1) bypassing standard naturalisation timelines shall carry the full legal status, rights, and privileges of citizenship across all domains of the Realm.

6. Citizenship through Service to the Crown
(1) Any E-Resident or non-subject who renders distinguished, meritorious, or sustained public service to the Crown, state administration, economy, or civil institutions of Danuvius may be nominated for Citizenship through Service.

(2) Upon formal recommendation by the Margravial Chancery or High Council, and approval under the Sovereign's Hand, such service-based candidate shall be admitted as a full citizen of the Realm.

PART III: IMMIGRATION AND BORDER CONTROL

7. Entry and Residency Controls
(1) The entry of foreign nationals into the sovereign enclaves and territories of Danuvius shall be regulated by visas, permits, and border controls administered by the Chancery.

(2) The Crown reserves the absolute sovereign right to deny entry to, or expel from its territories, any individual whose presence is deemed contrary to the public interest, security, or peace of the Realm.

8. Deprivation of Citizenship
(1) The Chancery may revoke the citizenship of any individual convicted of treason, sedition, or grave offences against the Sovereign or the constitutional order of Danuvius.
