INSTRUMENT IX: THE STATE TREASURY, CURRENCY & FISCAL REGULATION ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This statutory instrument formally establishes the state treasury, regulates public finance, establishes official coinage and currency standards, authorises the acquisition of gold and precious reserves, and provides for the administration of fiscal policy within the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius. Operating as Part IX of the foundational legal framework, this Act secures the financial administration of the Realm under the authority of the Crown.

Instrument VIII: The National Honours, Chivalric Orders & Precedence Act

(9 Albr. I)

AN ACT to establish the State Treasury of the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius, to regulate public revenue and expenditure, to authorise the acquisition of gold and precious reserves, to regulate the coinage and issuance of official currency, and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by Our Sovereign Hand, in this first year of Our Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: PRELIMINARY AND THE STATE TREASURY

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The State Treasury, Currency & Fiscal Regulation Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 9 Albrecht I (the ninth statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. Establishment of the State Treasury

(1) There is hereby established the Treasury of the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius as the central authority responsible for the management of public funds, national revenue, and state budgeting.

(2) The Treasury shall be superintended by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, operating under the general direction of the Margravial Chancery and accountable to the Crown.

PART II: CURRENCY AND COINAGE

3. The Official Currency of the Realm
(1) The official monetary unit of account of the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius shall be the Danubian Florin, subdivided into one hundred groschen.

(2) The Sovereign reserves the exclusive royal prerogative to authorise the minting of commemorative and circulating coinage, as well as the issuance of state bank notes or digital sovereign tender.

(3) All official accounts, legal contracts, and judicial fines within the Realm shall be denominated in the Danubian Florin unless otherwise authorised by specific licence issued by the Treasury.

4. Minting, Authentication and Precious Reserves
(1) The official mint mark of Danuvius shall be stamped upon all authorised bullion and legal tender coinages to guarantee purity, weight, and sovereign sanction.

(2) Any unauthorised imitation, counterfeiting, or fraudulent debasement of the currency of Danuvius constitutes a high misdemeanour against the Crown and shall be punishable by law.

(3) Acquisition of Gold and Bullion: The Treasury is expressly authorised to utilise public fees, tax revenues, and state surpluses to purchase, accumulate, and hold physical gold, silver, and other strategic precious metal reserves to back the financial stability and economic integrity of the Realm.

PART III: PUBLIC REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

5. Consolidated Revenue Fund
(1) All taxes, duties, administrative fees, and revenues raised or received by the organs of the Realm shall form part of a single Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(2) No public moneys shall be expended except under the authority of an Appropriation Warrant signed by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and countersigned by the Sovereign or the High Chancellor.

6. Auditing and Financial Accountability
(1) The Treasury shall present an annual financial report and audited accounts of the Realm to the High Council within thirty days following the close of each fiscal year, ensuring complete transparency and public accountability.
