INSTRUMENT XIV: THE FOREIGN RELATIONS & DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY ACT, 2026

(Enacted in the First Year of the Reign of Margrave Albrecht I)

BRIEF SUMMARY:

This statutory instrument formally establishes the framework for foreign relations, diplomatic missions, treaty-making powers, and diplomatic immunity within the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius. Operating as Part XIV of the foundational legal framework, this Act regulates the accreditation of foreign envoys, the conduct of Danubian diplomatic representation abroad, and the legal protections afforded to international missions under international law.

Instrument XIV: The Foreign Relations & Diplomatic Immunity Act

(14 Albr. I)

AN ACT to regulate the conduct of external relations by the Sovereign Margraviate of Danuvius, to provide for the accreditation of diplomatic representatives, to grant diplomatic immunities and privileges in accordance with international custom, and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by Our Sovereign Hand, in this first year of Our Reign, with the advice and consent of the High Council of the Realm, as follows:

PART I: PRELIMINARY AND DIPLOMATIC PREROGATIVE

1. Short Title and Citation

(1) This instrument may be cited as The Foreign Relations & Diplomatic Immunity Act, 2026.

(2) In all formal legal records, this Act may alternatively be cited by regnal reference as 14 Albrecht I (the fourteenth statute enacted in the reign of Margrave Albrecht I).

2. The Diplomatic Prerogative of the Crown

(1) The Sovereign Margrave retains the exclusive royal prerogative to recognise foreign states and governments, establish diplomatic relations, accredit ambassadors and envoys, and ratify international treaties.

(2) The Margravial Chancery, under the direction of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, shall manage the day-to-day diplomatic operations, consular services, and international engagements of the Realm.

Margravial Chancery of Danuvius

PART III: DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES

5. Diplomatic Immunity and Inviolability
(1) Accredited diplomatic agents, envoys, and consular officers of recognized foreign states residing in or visiting Danuvius shall enjoy immunity from the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the courts of the Realm, in accordance with established international law and reciprocal diplomatic conventions.

(2) The premises, archives, and official correspondence of accredited foreign missions within the enclaves of Danuvius shall be inviolable and protected by state authorities.

6. Waiver of Immunity and Persona Non Grata
(1) The Sovereign may at any time declare any foreign diplomatic representative or mission member persona non grata, requiring their prompt departure from the territories of the Realm.

(2) Diplomatic immunity may be formally waived by the sending state in respect of any specific judicial proceeding.
